Program « APEBH Conference 2012

Session 9: Tasman Worlds

Chair: Les Oxley (University of Canterbury and University of Waikato, New Zealand)

Keir Reeves (Monash University, Australia), Chris McConville (Victoria University, Australia), and Andrew Reeves (Monash University, Australia): 'Trans-Tasman connections: Historical linkages between Central-Western Victoria, Australia and Otago, New Zealand and their legacy in the early 21st Century'

Brian Easton (Independent Scholar, New Zealand): 'Five great stagnations' (http://apebh2012.files.wordpress.com/2011/05/eastonaepbh.pdf)

Christopher Lloyd (University of New England, Australia and Helsinki University, Finland): 'The lucky country syndrome in Australia: Resources, social democracy, and regimes of development in historical political economy perspective' (http://apebh2012.files.wordpress.com/2011/05/lloyd-lucky-country-apebhc.pdf)

10:30-11:00 Tea-Coffee Break (Arndt foyer)

11:00-12:30 Arndt Lecture Theatre 1

Session 10: Statebuilding

Chair: Niv Horesh (University of Western Sydney, Australia)

Pauline Grosjean (University of New South Wales, Australia): 'Conflict trap or state building? International wars, civil conflicts and social and political preferences' (http://apebh2012.files.wordpress.com/2011/05/apebh-text-of-paper-grosjean.pdf)

11:00-12:30 Arndt Lecture Theatre 2

Session 11: History of Australian manufacturing

Chair: Simon Ville (University of Wollongong, Australia)

David Prentice (La Trobe University, Australia): 'What delays the rise of an industry? The long slow birth of Lehigh Valley cement' (http://apebh2012.files.wordpress.com/2011/05/prentice.pdf)

Jock Given (Swinburne University, Australia): 'Turning on the Wireless: Amalgamated Wireless (Australasia) (AWA), 1913-46'

11:00-12:30 Arndt Tutorial Room 1

http://apebh2012.wordpress.com/provisionalprogram/