Dear Prof Azirah Hashim,

Journal: World Englishes

Your article has been received by our production department. In order to get access, you must register at our Wiley-Blackwell Author Services website.

By visiting Author Services and registering now, you will also be able to enjoy the following additional benefits:

- Track the progress of your article through the production process
- Receive publication status alerts
- Enable free access to your published article online for all co-authors and up to 10 nominated colleagues
- Enjoy a 25% discount on Wiley books

To register at Wiley-Blackwell Author Services and have your article automatically added to your account, go to:

If you have already registered with Author Services simply select the URL above and log in using your e-mail address and password. Use the "Add Article" feature to add this article to your profile; the Unique ID for this article is: 1006257-917421. Your username is the e-mail you used to register.

IMPORTANT NOTES:
1. Only by logging into Author Services will you have access to the final PDF (electronic offprint) of your article. You will not receive a PDF directly from the typesetter.

2. The Author Services system is separate from ScholarOne Manuscripts, and as such, requires a separate account.

3. Please don't forward this message to your co-authors; the Unique ID can only be used once. Once you have added the article yourself, you'll be able to supply co-author details and Author Services will send individual alerts to each co-author.

4. If you have problems logging in or accessing the status of this article, please forward this message to cs-author@wiley.com.

We look forward to your joining our author community at Wiley-Blackwell.

Best wishes,

Wiley-Blackwell Author Services Team
