Dear Dr Aga Mohd Jaladin:

Ref: Barriers and Challenges in the Practice of Multicultural Counselling in Malaysia: A Qualitative Interview Study

Our referee has now considered your paper and have recommended publication in Counselling Psychology Quarterly. We are pleased to accept your paper in its current form (the editor in chief will make the necessary revisions for you to ensure it is published in the next available issue June 2013) which will shortly be forwarded to the publisher for copy editing and typesetting. The reviewer comments are included at the bottom of this letter, along with those of the editor who coordinated the review of your paper.

You will receive proofs for checking, and instructions for transfer of copyright in due course.

The publisher also requests that proofs are checked and returned within 48 hours of receipt. The publisher also requests that proofs are checked and returned within 48 hours of receipt. Please note that this is urgent and your inability or failure to do so may result in your paper being delayed in publication. If you plan to be away and have a different email or fax then please let us know nearer the time. It is also ESSENTIAL that copyright transfer is signed and sent at the same time or your paper cannot be published.

Thank you for your contribution to Counselling Psychology Quarterly and we look forward to receiving further submissions from you.

Sincerely,
Dr Halladin
Editor in Chief, Counselling Psychology Quarterly

This is an interesting and valuable piece of work for the international counselling community. It conveys a good picture of the issues non-western counsellors have to understand and deal with. However, the two weak areas for improvements are the lack of mention of a multicultural model on which to pin the framework of the study and the conclusion needs re-reading. In the circumstances, the Editor in Chief can help with these matters, if the paper is accepted.
