Comprising more than 160 exercises, this French Verbs Exercise Book is directed at beginners and intermediate learners desiring to complement their theoretical knowledge of French conjugation with exercises written in a contemporary language.

Contrary to traditional usage, this book is designed to challenge learners and at the same time to amuse them, as many of the exercises are given a distinct touch of humour. Dozing off is therefore not the order of the day.

Topics are arranged logically and follow the progression of our Essential French Grammar: moods, tenses, passive voice and indirect speech take the learner by the hand in a cascade of exercises organized in increasing order of complexity. Solutions are provided together with alternative solutions, and an extensive list of vocabulary has been conveniently added at the end of the book.

JEAN SÉVERY M.A. in Brussels Free University, M.Phil in Sorbonne, Paris. Taught French language and culture as university lecturer since 1983 in Europe (Belgium, Germany, United Kingdom) and Asia (Taiwan, China, Japan, Malaysia). At present, conference interpreter and lecturer in the Faculty of Languages and Linguistics, University of Malaya.

Consists of three parts: moods and tenses, passive voice and indirect speech.

Exercises follow a logical progression, from the simple to the complex.

To facilitate the work of teachers and to allow learners to evaluate their own results, all exercises have been given a mark.

An exhaustive list of vocabulary is provided so there is no need for a supplementary dictionary.
