INTRODUCTION

Multiple Intelligences (MI) Theory is originated by Dr. Howard Gardner in 1983 through his book Frames of Mind: The Theory of Multiple Intelligence. Gardner’s possesses that each individual have eight types of intelligences with different intelligences combination, capacity and strength. The purpose of this survey is to investigate multiple intelligences profile of post-graduate FCSIT, UM in thinking and understanding. Multiple Intelligence description below will help you in answering the survey. This survey will take about 5 – 10 minutes only. Thank you for your cooperation.

Multiple Intelligences are:

1. Visual-Spatial Intelligence - Ability to think in images and pictures form in the mind in different perspectives during learning and thinking process.

2. Logical-Mathematical Intelligence - Ability to perform such as problem solving that require scientific thinking of logic, numbers, classifying, reasoning, relationship and recognizing patterns.

3. Kinesthetic Intelligence - Learning by doing, engaging in hands-on activity, use physical movement to express by touching, walking, body language, gesture, face expression.

4. Linguistic Intelligence – Love to reading, writing, speaking and conversing. Have ability to express in writing and spoken.

5. Interpersonal Intelligence - skills of interaction with other peoples, understanding each others, has good relationship, knows how to communicate with groups, and work collaboratively.

6. Intrapersonal Intelligence - Understanding internal aspect of the self in terms of emotions and thoughts, intuitions, beliefs, and thinking process that growing and be able to control.

7. Musical Intelligence – Sensitive to rhythm and sound. Ability to perceive, appreciate melody, tones and rhythms.

8. Naturalist Intelligence - Aware of the natural process of environmental, nature, development, life cycle and behaviour.