Dear Prof Scabo,

This is very good news for me and my colleague. May I ask what the page number is for the article titled Clozapine Withdrawal Catatonia or Lethal Catatonia in a Schizoaffective patient with family history of Parkinsons Disease.

Thanks

Sharmilla.

Dear Colleagues, just to confirm that the November 2010 edition of the Journal has been published. Work from yourselves appears in this edition and if you wish to obtain a hardcopy of the edition please contact the publisher- Andrew Thomas - who can be contacted via e-mail: inhouse@iafrica.com. The electronic availability of the content via the website has been delayed for reasons beyond our control but it will be available in early 2011 with inclusion in Medline at that time. In the interim- specific page numbers for individual articles can also be obtained from myself or the publisher.

Kind regards,

Christopher P. Szabo
